

NORFOLK AND NORWICH ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

Lecture Programme 2018–2019

Lectures begin at 2.15pm at the Town Close Auditorium, Castle Museum, Norwich (unless otherwise stated). Lectures are free to all members; non-members are most welcome and are asked to leave a small donation.

2018

- Sep 29 Dr Victor Morgan, Univ. East Anglia
The Ups and Downs of Elm Hill: properties and people
To follow the AGM at 2pm at Hungate, St Peter Hungate Church. The talk will be followed by a guided walk down Elm Hill.
- Oct 27 Dr Tess Machling & Roland Williamson
Talking Torcs: East Anglia and Beyond
- Nov 10 Josh Pollard, Univ. Southampton & Mark Gillings, Univ. Leicester
Living with Monuments: settlement, monumentality, and landscape in the Neolithic of the Avebury region
Joint lecture with the Prehistoric Society
- Dec 1 Dr Tim Pestell, Norwich Castle Museum
Norfolk's Gateway to Medieval England: The Norwich Castle Keep Redevelopment Project
Joint lecture with NAHRG

2019

- Jan 5 Adam Wightman, Colchester Archaeological Trust
Boudicca and the Buried Treasure
- Feb 2 Tony Walsh, MOLA Headland Infrastructure
A landscape through time: archaeology of the A14 Cambridge to Huntingdon improvement scheme.
- Mar 2 Sue Margeson Memorial Lecture:
Naomi Sykes, Univ. Exeter, and Aleks McClain, Univ. York
Archaeologies of the Norman Conquest