

Norfolk and Norwich Archaeological Society Excursion Booking Form 2018

Please mark clearly how many tickets you require for each excursion, and at which rate.

	Price	N° Tickets
24th May: The Pastons in Norfolk
A coach day trip from Norwich led by Dr Rob Knee of the Paston Heritage Society. We will visit Paston and Oxnead churches plus Oxnead Hall. Included lunch will be at Hill House, Happisburgh (selection of sandwiches, cake and tea/coffee, reserved tables). In the afternoon, we will visit Caister Castle, built by Sir John Fastoff in 1432, who left it to Sir John Paston.	£34.50 inclusive
4th July: The Paston Exhibition at Norwich Castle
A morning guided tour, especially for NNAS members, of the Paston Treasures Exhibition at Norwich Castle, led by Francesca Vanke, Keeper of Art and Keeper of Decorative Art who has curated the exhibition.	£13.55
	£13.10 concessions
	£5 with museum pass
19th July: A Day in Essex
Coach from Norwich, travelling first to Layer Marney Tower in Essex. The tower is a Grade I listed Tudor gatehouse built in 1520. It is privately owned and lived in by the owners, one of whom will take us on a private tour, geared to us, and including parts of the tower not open to the public. A refreshments package is available, bookable in advance only; coffee/tea and traybake cake on arrival, and ploughman's lunch. In the afternoon, a visit to Stow Maries WW1 airfield has been arranged. The airfield opened in 1916 for the Royal Flying Corps and closed in 1919, when it reverted to being a farm and the buildings were put to agricultural use. Many of the buildings survive and are Grade II* listed. We will be given an introductory talk by the CEO of the trust, historian Ian Flint and then a tour of the airfield. A cream tea is included!	£37 Coach trip
	£15.50 Layer Marney refreshment package.
18th August: A Walk in Historic Thetford
Led by Keith Robinson. Meet at the Ancient House Museum where introductory talk, tour and coffee and biscuits have been arranged, before commencing the walk. Make your own way to Thetford and your own lunch arrangements.	£5.30
	£1.50 with museum pass
Possible future events	Please express your interest here:
August/September , a visit to the Broadlands Project led by Andrew Farrell.
November , a trip to the British Library to see the Anglo-Saxon Kingdoms exhibition, which will include the Codex Amiatinus, the St Cuthbert Gospel, the Domesday Book and items from the Staffordshire Hoard.

Name:
Address:
Email:
Telephone:

Please include a separate cheque for each trip (in case of a refund situation), payable to NNAS.

Send your completed booking form to: The Hon Excursions Sec, Margaret Gooch, 77 High Rd, Gorleston, Great Yarmouth, NR31 0PB. For further details phone: 01493 661270 or email: mhgooch943@gmail.com